Theodore R. Mellby, being duly sworn, on oath, deposes and states:

Plaintiff has duly appealed a jury verdict in favor of defendant in Justice Court, Credit River Township, County of Scott, Justice Martin V. Mahoney. Unlawful detainer is the nature of the civil action.

M.S.A. Section 566.12 is the exclusive statute governing the appeal of unlawful detainer actions to the District Court. The normal appellate procedures from Justice Court, contained in M.S.A. Sec. 532.37 to 532.50 are inapplicable to unlawful detainer actions as a result of M.S.A. Sec. 532.37.

The most significant reason why M.S.A. Sections 532.37 to 532.50 are inapplicable to unlawful detainer actions is that speedy relief must be afforded in an unlawful detainer action. If the appeal of an unlawful detainer action could not be heard until "the next general term of the District Court occurring more than twenty (20) days after the filing of such notice of appeal " (M.S.A. 532.38) the intent to afford that speedy relief which is necessary in proceedings of this character would be frustrated. Hoffman V. Parsons. 27 MINN 236, 238 (1880) 6 N.W. 797.
